

THE ROMANIAN ORTHODOX PARISH ST ANDREW THE APOSTLE
BIRMINGHAM WEST MIDLANDS

To the Congregation and friends of the Romanian Orthodox Church of Saint Andrew the Apostle, Birmingham - West Midlands

As you visit our usual place for religious services used in the last three years at St Francis Hall, the University of Birmingham Chaplaincy, you will notice many changes that our Parish has been going through. With a constantly increasing number of worshipers, an additional number of liturgical objects necessary to our religious services, religious literature and more faith in Jesus Christ, our lodgings at the Chaplaincy have become overcrowded. At this stage we are humbly raising our prayers to God to help us have our own Church so we can worship and praise His infinite goodness. Many people are working very hard to raise the required funds for such an acquisition. Just a minimum of £3 per month through filling in the enclosed Standing Order Form can prove crucial in keeping this wish ongoing. If you pay income tax, the Parish could claim it back from HMRC on your donation. All you need to do is fill in the attached Gift Aid form and hand it to Fr Mihai Razvan Novacovschi. As you come in and worship with us you will see the Church evolve into a wonderful beacon of Orthodoxy within West Midlands.
